Iraqi Security Forces in Baghdad making an impact

BAGHDAD, Iraq – Iraqi Security Forces continue to respond to reports of suspected improvised explosive devices and anti-Iraq force activity in the Baghdad area, according to a multinational forces report.

Iraqi Police officers received a report of a possible vehicle-borne IED August 21. Police cordoned a pick-up truck at the specified location and secured the immediate area. Police found one rocket launcher and eight rockets in the truck. An Iraqi explosive ordnance disposal team conducted a controlled detonation of the munitions.

Early this morning, Iraqi soldiers and Public Order Brigade officers conducted two separate raids resulting in the detainment of seven suspected insurgents.
